COURSE DESCRIPTION
Spanish 4 and 5 are intermediate courses in Spanish language and culture. The intermediate series is designed to help you to continue to increase your ability to communicate in Spanish. You will continue to acquire cultural competence and you will be introduced to the study of literature. By the end of the course you are expected to:

1. comprehend conversations on familiar topics and stretches of connected discourse,
2. read texts several paragraphs in length with minimum use of a dictionary,
3. write with increased grammatical accuracy and good control of sentence structure as well as a sense of paragraph coherence and text organization,
4. talk about past, present and future events, and express preferences, feelings, beliefs and opinions.

Spanish 4 and 5 are conducted completely in Spanish.

Spanish 4 and 5 are delivered in a blended format. You are required to attend face-to-face class meetings three (3) hours per week. An additional two (2) hours per week of work will be assigned, on-line, through My Spanish Lab.*

The on-line portion of the course is required and you must have access to a computer and the Internet in order to complete the on-line portion. There are several computer labs on campus that have the required hardware and software to complete all of the on-line work.

We recommend the CDH Learning Lab @Rolfe in Rolfe Hall 2118. Please follow the link for a current schedule of drop-in hours. http://www.cdh.ucla.edu/labs/

*Please note:
Technical difficulties with personal computers and/or Internet access or the MySpanishLab program will not be accepted as excuses for not completing the on-line portion of the course by the deadline.

Technical difficulties with MySpanishLab are not the responsibility of the instructor. Your instructor will not be able to offer you technical support for MySpanishLab. Because the on-line portion is such an important part of the course, do not delay in setting up your MySpanishLab access and contact Pearson customer service immediately if you are having any problems. http://247pearsoned.custhelp.com. Only in the event that the Pearson 24/7 customer service cannot resolve your issue, please contact the Director of the Language Program jfalce@humnet.ucla.edu.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS

Atando cabos Gonzalez-Aguilar, et al. 4th Edition
Atando cabos Student Activities Manual in My Spanish Lab

TEXT MATERIAL COVERED

Spanish 4: Chapters 1 through 5
Spanish 5: Chapters 7 through 11

*Note about materials and technology in the classroom: All students are required to purchase the student textbook for in-class use, as well as on-line access (through MySpanishLab) to complete the required assignments outside of class. Your instructor will provide you with an individual course code on the first day of class. The course code will enable you to enroll in the correct section of MySpanishLab.

Each individual instructor reserves the right to determine whether or not personal electronic devices may be used during class; this includes laptops, Ipads, tablets, cell phones and other electronic devices. Please check with your instructor to confirm his/her personal policy.

CLASS DYNAMICS

Class time will be dedicated to communicative activities in Spanish. You should come to class prepared to participate and to enthusiastically engage in a variety of activities in groups and pairs. You will be introduced to new language and cultural information through the on-line preparation activities. In class, your instructor will provide opportunities to listen, speak, read and write in Spanish. Class time will not be devoted to lengthy grammar discussions or mechanical or repetitive grammar drills. It is your responsibility to complete the preparation activities prior to class as well complete any other exercises assigned by your instructor in MySpanishLab and on the Moodle class page. If you need additional assistance with specific concepts you should see your instructor during office hours.

WORKLOAD

Please note: Because this is a hybrid courses, the preparation activities assigned in MySpanishLab are required contact hours, which are part of the hour/unit count for the course. Your instructor will also assign additional assignments and you are expected to study beyond the preparation assignments.

Each class will require approximately two to three hours a day of careful and systematic preparation and studying. Without sufficient time and solid studying skills/habits, you will struggle to pass this class. You are strongly advised to evaluate your own situation carefully before deciding to stay in the class.
EVALUATION CRITERIA
Student Performance  25%
Culture Projects (2) 10%
Quizzes 5%
Midterm Exams (2) 30%
Oral Exam 20%
Final Exam 10%

Student Performance
Active preparation and participation are essential to the successful completion of this course. You are expected to demonstrate your willingness to participate in pair and group activities in class. You must come to class prepared (having completed the assigned preparation activities). If you do not prepare before class and participate actively in class, it is highly unlikely that you will acquire the necessary skills to pass the course.

For this reason, if you have other obligations that will require you to miss more than two (2) classes, for example: internships, MCAT, LSAT, interviews, personal events such as weddings or anniversaries, or you have planned surgery, travel or other activities that will require you to miss more than 3 class periods, you should not enroll in this course.

MySpanishLab (15%).
You are required to complete all of the assigned tutorials and activities in MySpanishLab, as indicated by your instructor, by the due date. Not completing the assigned activities will greatly affect your ability to participate in the in-class activities. No late MySpanishLab work will be accepted.

Oral and Written Expression (10%)
Proficiency in speaking and writing are important objectives of the course. For that reason, you will be provided many opportunities to acquire the necessary skills to speak and write in a variety of contexts and situations. You will be assigned role plays, skits, oral presentations as well many different formats for writing in class. The speaking and writing skills that you acquire through these activities will be evaluated two times per quarter with oral and written exams. It is important that you attend daily and complete these activities in order to be prepared to pass the exams. No late speaking or writing activities will be accepted.

Speaking and writing activities will be carried out daily in class

Quizzes
There will be three (3) (unannounced) quizzes throughout the quarter. The quizzes will cover the assigned material and may be written or oral. The quizzes may be in class or delivered via MySpanishLab. There will be no make-up quizzes.*

*If a quiz is missed due to a documented legal or medical emergency of your own, the next quiz will count double. You must present the appropriate documentation to your instructor no later than 48 hours after the absence. No documentation will be accepted after 48 hours.

Mid-term Exams
There will be 2 written mid-term exams. The exams will include listening comprehension, reading comprehension and written expression. There will be no make-up exams.*
*Personal obligations such as work, travel, scheduled medical or dental procedures, conferences, participation in club sports, etc. are not considered valid excuses for missing the midterm exams. If you have any time conflict because of your personal schedule, a make-up exam will NOT be scheduled. If you cannot take a midterm exam on the date scheduled, you should not take this course this quarter.

If a midterm is missed due to a documented legal or medical emergency of your own, you must present the appropriate documentation to your instructor no later than 48 hours after the absence. No documentation will be accepted after 48 hours.

Oral Exams
You will be provided formative feedback on your daily oral performance throughout the quarter. You will also engage in communicative activities and situations in class on a daily basis. Your overall achievement in oral proficiency will be evaluated at the end of the quarter. The oral exam will consist of situational topics, very similar to those carried out in class, provided to you at the time of the exam. The oral exam must be completed in groups during the designated class periods or during your instructor’s office hours. There will be no make-up oral exams.

Final Exam
The final exam will be comprehensive and will include listening comprehension, reading comprehension, grammar, vocabulary and culture. The final exam will be on-line and delivered through the MySpanishLab program. Your instructor will provided specific instructions at the appropriate time during the quarter.

Please read carefully: Personal obligations which may include, but are not limited to: travel study, conferences, internships, training, employment, scheduled medical or dental appointments or procedures, participation in club sports, MCAT, LSAT or other examinations, interviews, personal events such as family weddings, anniversaries or vacations, will not be considered as excused absences for quizzes, midterm exams, oral exams or the final exam. If you miss a quiz or an exam for ANY reason other than the documented emergencies mentioned above, you will received “0” on that exam or quiz. There will be no exceptions to this policy. Please check the course calendar carefully to make sure you do not have any conflicts. If you have unavoidable personal conflicts, you should not enroll in Spanish 4-5 this quarter.

COURSE GRADE
The final course grade will be based on a percentage system of the points accumulated during the quarter, according to the following scale:

- 100-98 = A+
- 97-94 = A
- 93-90 = A-
- 92-89 = B+
- 86-83 = B
- 82-80 = B-
- 79-77 = C+
- 76-73 = C
- 72-70 = C-
- 69-67 = D+
- 66-63 = D
- 62-60 = D
- 59-0 = F

Please note below the criteria for passing the course. There will be no exceptions.

For P/NP grading (undergraduates), P = C (73) or better.
For S/U grading (graduate students), S = B (83) or better.
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
As a student and member of the University community, you are expected to demonstrate integrity in all of your academic endeavors. You are evaluated on your own merits. Be proud of your accomplishments and protect academic integrity at UCLA.

As specified by University policy, violations or attempted violations of academic dishonesty include, but are limited to: cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, multiple submissions, or facilitating academic dishonesty (See University of California Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations, and Students, 102.01).

Violations of the academic integrity policy are not acceptable and will not be tolerated. For more information, please visit: http://www.deanofstudents.ucla.edu/students.html

ACCOMMODATIONS
Any student with a documented visible or non-visible disability should see the Office of Students with Disabilities as soon as possible to arrange for the appropriate accommodations. For more information, please visit: http://www.osd.ucla.edu/Index.htm

Please note that your instructor will not discuss or offer any accommodations that have not been documented and recommended officially by the University.

ISSUES AND CONCERNS
You should always speak with your instructor directly with any issues or concerns about this course. If you have an issue that you are unable to resolve with your instructor, please contact the Director of the Language Program, Dr. Juliet Falce-Robinson at jfalce@humnet.ucla.edu or visit Dr. Falce-Robinson during office hours in Rolfe Hall 4333.
