

CUBAN FILMS IN THE 21ST CENTURY: LAURA DE LA UZ'S 'VESTIDO DE NOVIA' (2014)

Comments and discussion with Laura de la Uz, main protagonist and leading Cuban actress.

About the film: This award winning movie discusses the lack of sexual diversity in Cuba as they touch upon the problems and needs of transsexuals.

During the riots in 1994, Rosa and Ernestos' happy marriage falls apart when the truth about Rosa's sex reassignment surgery comes out.

104 minutes | In Spanish with English subtitles

Laura de la Uz has developed a brilliant career that encompasses both cinema, theater and television, making a total of 28 films.

Wednesday, January 22

Lydeen Library

4302 Rolfe Hall

6:00PM - 10:00PM

ucla
Latin American INSTITUTE

UCLA

College | Social Sciences

History

UCLA

Program on Caribbean Studies

Latin American Institute

UCLA DEPARTMENT OF

SPANISH & PORTUGUESE