JULIANA ESPINAL, PH.D. CANDIDATE

ISAAC GIMÉNEZ, PH.D. CANDIDATE

GEMMA REPISO-PUIGDELLIURA,

PH.D CANDIDATE

How do I even get started with research? How do I translate my interests into research questions that I can explore? In this roundtable, a panel of PhD candidates will answer questions about how to get started with research. Students and PhD candidates will discuss how to come up with feasible research questions and how to balance research with other responsibilities such as courses and teaching.
